Mr. Machen Offers a Measure Drawn With Great Care and Endorsed by Many.

COVERS ALL CASES

The Bill Provides for Secret Ballot, Sworn Officers and Other Details,

Senator Lewis II. Machen, of Alexandria, vesterday introduced a bill to provide for primary elections. It is a carefully drawn measure of eighteen sections, making provision for the nomination of all officers by primaries.

The bill provides that whenever party organization shall order a primary election in the State or any political for any office filled by elections by the people or by the General Assembly or to people or by the General Assembly or to select delegates to a party convention such elections shall be held under the provisions of this law.

The bill requires notice by advertisement of the date and purpose of the election, specifies the conditions of candidacy and of notice thereof; prescribes that such election shall be held at the regular voting places and shall be on the same date wherever held, and that the polishable be open from sunrise to sunset.

Three judges of election are to be chosen and one clerk, the same to be named by the circuit judge or the corporation judge from a list of ten names furnished him by the chairman of the party committee or other party authority. The compensation of such judges and clerks shall be the same as in regular election.

Only those registered and qualified to vote at the next regular election shall be allowed to vote, and even then the party authorities may prescribe such other qualifications or limitations as they To Vote by Ballot.

All voting shall be by ballot, and provi-sion is made for keeping the ballot lox in sight; secreey of the ballot; entering names on poll books and certifying the names on poll books and certifying the result. The ballots are to be scaled with the poll books and left in the custody of the court, after they have been counted, canvassed and certified. Candidates or their representatives are admitted to the polling place from the opening of the poll under the returns are eascertained and certified. After the ballots have been scaled and turned over to the county or corporation clerk they shall be preserved for thirty days and then burned. Provision is made for appeal and recount; the officers of election are made conservators of the peace, and heavy penalties are imposed for interfering with or attempting to coerce or intimidate them.

Additional rules and regulations had be made by the party having charge of the primary, and qualifications additional to those stated may be imposed upon voters, provided the same are not inconsistent with the terms of this act. The bill repeats all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the law.

peals all acts or parts of sous in conflict with this law.

The new measure has been drawn with great care by Mr. Machen and safeguarded in every way practicable. So far as possible every contingency has been provided for, and all the safeguards of law are thrown around the primaries. The bill as drawn was submitted to Judge Archer A. Phiegar, a member of the Senate, and has passed his scrutiny and meets his ideas. The patron had submitted the measure to the critical examination of others, and wherever beneficial suggestions, tending to strengthen the measure have been made, they have been incorporated.

NORFOLK COUNTY FIGHT. Straightouts Will Make Another Try for a Caucus Thereon.

Try for a Cancus Thereon.

The fallure of the House to hold a caucus for the nomination of a doorkeeper overthrew the hopes of the Straightouts from Norfolk county of having the caucus pass upon the right of Messrs. Owens and Parker to seats in that body. It was confidently expected that a caucus would be necessary, but the action of the House without a conference was generally understood to avoid going into the Norfolk county fight. Whatever the merits of the controversy, there is considerable aversion among the members to taking it up. Some who profess to have no interest in the fight urge this as a reason for not taking it up. Others do not care to sit and hear the old story threshed over. On the other hand, many of the influential members of the House aranxious to take the matter up. Hon. J. C. Parker, of Southampton, is a warm advocate of the Straightout side of the fight, and thinks the party caucus should take it up. The advocates of caucus action hald a secret conference late yesterday afternoon at Murphy's, but did not disclose the result.

The only way that the matter can be taken up now is by calling a caucus especially for the purpose, and it would take a majority of the House Democrats to secure such a conference. The effort will nevertheless be made. The question is sure to precipitate a great struggle when the case comes up.

Mr. R. H. Baghy, representing Messrs, Owens and Parker, who are the sitting members, inved to dismiss this motion, and he and Colonal Cabell cross-fired considerably on this point, after which the committee rose without taking any action.

To Repeal Game Law. Dr. R. S. Powell of Brunswick, yesterday offered a bill in the House, which proposes to repeal all the laws now on the statute books relating to the killing and shipping of game in Virginia. Dr. Powell who is essentially frank and honest, believes that he or any other land owner in the State has an inherent right to kill game at any time he may choose on his own premises.

To Sell Medical College. To Seil Medical College.

Simultaneously with the introduction by Mv. Shackelford in the Scnate and Mr. Lee lin the House of a bill appropriating U7.00 to the Medical College of Virginia Mr. Person, delegate from Sussex, offered in the House yesterday a bill proposing to rent or sell out the Medical College of Virginia, "In order to save the State the enormous appropriation annually made thereto." The measure offered by Mr. Person, which is not taken seriously, is based upon the mistaken idea that the State owns the college absolutely. The bill will probably be heard of no more at this session.

HON. JACOB YOST HERE.

Former Republican Congressman

and a man who was formerly a power in Republican politics in this State. Mr. Yest came in yesterday and is at the Powhatian. He stated that he was out of politics in the sense of being an aspirant for office of any kind, but that he still took a lively interest in politics as a cilizen and a Republican. He expressed hope of the rehabilitudion of the party in the State. For years he has devoted himself to his large mineral and business interests, and has had no time for politics. When he read in the papers yesterday of the nominating speeches in the General Assembly yesterday, he said it stirred him again with the memories of old political battles. He told of a joint discussion he once had with Capitain Camm Patteson (who was sitting in the lobby not far away inst night) years ago in the town of Buchanan. That discussion he said lasted until midnight, and was one of the warmest, yet withal friendliest mix-ups he had ever had in politics. It was lively for the best portion of the four hours of opening, rejoiner and reply.
